PRESIDENT'S WELCOME

president@prсахouston.org

Welcome to PRSA Houston's 37th Annual Excalibur Awards! I am delighted to celebrate and honor Houston's finest public relations professionals tonight at The House of Blues. This year's theme is "PR Like a Rockstar." On behalf of the PRSA Houston Board of Directors, we want to thank you for being here to commemorate your achievements and contributing to the ethics and evolution of our profession.

All of us here are rockstars for persevering through the plethora of pandemic-driven challenges we've encountered. Over the past couple years, we've improved and restructured how we communicate – realizing we can effectively work and network remotely, while nothing quite equates to the quality of in-person connections.

PRSA Houston's Excalibur Awards event is always the highlight of our year, and tonight is no exception. We are thrilled to have Khambrel Marshall with KPRC 2 and Mayra Moreno with ABC 13 emcee the awards event, introducing each award winner to stage. One outstanding public relations team will take home the Grand Excalibur Award for their hard work and dedication to the communications field in 2021. The winning team will receive an engraved sword recognizing their incredible work during an extraordinary year.

Today, we will also recognize Priscilla Thorne Tinsley with our Legacy Award, which honors an individual for their continued commitment to the public relations profession, and we'll unveil our Public Relations Professional of the Year, Large PR Agency of the Year, and Government Communications Team of the Year.

Our scholarship co-chairs Sybil Sanchez and Sandra Fernandez will introduce this year's scholarship recipients, eight local college students who received a combined total of $15,000 to continue their studies in the public relations and communications fields. Help us continue this tradition by taking part in our scholarship raffle tonight.

PRSA Houston is excited to recognize our CEO Communicator of the Year, an award that honors the outstanding performance of Houston area Chief Executive Officer in his or her role as chief communicator. This year, we would like to honor Chris Boleman, President of the Houston Livestock Show & Rodeo. He believes good communication is vital for a successful community, and we agree! It is our honor to have Mr. Boleman receive this distinguished award.

To our sponsors, you are our true partners who believe in our mission for Houston's communications community. A special thank you to Kroger for your generous contribution as the presenting sponsor of this year's event. Also, thank you to our annual chapter sponsors, including Diamond Sponsor HillDay PR and Platinum Sponsors Brookwoods Group and Business Wire and all of our event table sponsors who are listed in the program.

I want to thank the Excalibur Awards committee who are the true behind-the-scenes PR rockstars of the event. A special thanks goes to Sparkle Bell and Sheldra Brigham for taking the reins as co-chairs and committee leaders. Your hard work will no doubt make this event one to remember!

Now, let's raise a glass and toast to moving past the pandemic and setting the course for the exciting journey ahead. Tonight, let's PR Like a Rockstar!

Sincerely,

Felicia Perez

KHAMBREL MARSHALL

Khambrel Marshall is a member of the KPRC 2 Weather Team and delivers the weekend forecasts to help you plan your day. He also is host of "Houston Newsmakers with Khambrel Marshall," a weekly program that dives into issues in the news that Southeast Texans most care about.

Khambrel is a proud member of Kappa Alpha Psi Fraternity Inc., having been initiated on April 29, 1979, at the Gamma Iota chapter at Arizona State University.

Khambrel has had a multifaceted career in broadcasting. While studying for his broadcasting degree from Arizona State University, he began his first job in TV as weekend sports anchor in Phoenix. Through the years, he was sports reporter, sports director, then primary news anchor in Miami before joining KPRC-TV as weekday anchor in May 1999.

Khambrel took a newsroom leadership role as Executive Producer for several years, before accepting a position as weekend meteorologist. This self-proclaimed "weather geek" earned his Broadcast Meteorology Certification from Mississippi State University. He currently serves as Immediate Past Chair of the board of the YMCA of Greater Houston, the largest childcare provider in the Houston region and sits on the boards of the A.D. Players at the George Theatre, Collaborative For Children, the Holocaust Museum Houston and the Evelyn Rubenstein Jewish Community Center.

Khambrel has been married to his wife Debbie since 1979 and they have three children and four grandchildren. Want to drop Khambrel a line? E-mail him at kmarshall@kprc.com. You can also keep up with him on Facebook and Twitter.

MAYRA MORENO

Mayra Moreno joined KTRK-TV Eyewitness News in October 2015.

A journalist with years of experience, Mayra has reported all over the state of Texas. She comes back to her hometown of Houston from KENS 5 in San Antonio, where she worked as the weekend anchor and reporter for four years.

Mayra's television career started at the Rio Grande Valley's news leader, KRGV-TV Channel 5 News in Weslaco, TX. Mayra covered an array of stories; from border-crime issues, to hurricane coverage and other problems affecting the community. A few years later, Mayra found her way back to Houston as a fill-in anchor and reporter for KIAH-TV's CW 39 News.

Throughout her career, Mayra has covered many notable stories. During her time at the CW, she was one of the many journalists to report live from Fort Hood after the deadly 2009 shooting. In San Antonio, Mayra was nominated for a Lone Star Emmy on an investigation into the city's DWI no refusal program, where blood samples began piling up and caused a backlog at the courts.

Mayra is happy to return home to Houston. She's a proud alum of the University of Houston, where she graduated Magna Cum Laude with a double major in Journalism and Spanish.

Mayra loves to hear from viewers, whether it's to say hello or pitch a story idea, be sure to drop her a line at Mayra.Moreno@abc.com. She is also very active on social media look for her on Facebook, Twitter and Instagram.

Big Rigs Get Their Time to Shine at Shell Rotella SuperRigs Campaigns
Public Service/Non-Profit Campaigns

As truck drivers became essential workers and were recognized as such during the COVID-19 Pandemic, they threw it into overdrive and worked non-stop to ensure that medicine, food and toilet paper would be delivered to where it needed to be. Coyne PR and Shell Rotella, the market-leading heavy duty engine oil, understood the importance of celebrating the hard work of these truck drivers by hosting Shell Rotella SuperRigs in person. After a year and a half of incredibly hard work, truck drivers received their time to shine at the 39th Annual Shell Rotella SuperRigs. The Annual Shell Rotella SuperRigs competition is the premier truck beauty contest for actively working trucks. Hard working owner/operator truck drivers from across North America compete for prizes and a chance to have their truck featured in the coveted Shell Rotella SuperRigs calendar. SuperRigs has a longstanding tradition of being an event to honor both the trucking community and the commitment of truck drivers to keep North America moving forward – even in the most uncertain of times. The event has traveled throughout the U.S. to celebrate truck drivers and their families, local communities, and supporters of Shell Rotella. Shell Rotella and Coyne PR understand the crucial role of truck drivers, especially during this critical time in transportation and recognized that after a year of a virtual activation, Shell Rotella SuperRigs had an opportunity to come back in a strong way, allowing these big rigs and their drivers a time to shine.

Houston Afghan Resettlement Fund Campaigns
Events and Observances

YMCA of Greater Houston's CEO partnered with three nonprofit agencies and its CEOs - The Alliance, Catholic Charities of the Archdiocese of Galveston-Houston and Interfaith Ministries for Greater Houston - who actively resettle refugees to form the Houston Afghan Resettlement Fund (HARF). This multi-agency collaboration established the Fund with a goal to raise $8.5 million that will provide critical needs for Houston's new neighbors during their resettlement. As the August 31, 2021 deadline for Afghans to flee their country, family, friends and belongings approached, Houston was preparing to resettle more than 6,000 Afghan vetted refugees. It was critical that the collaborative announced its need for support from the community. As the YMCA of Greater Houston's PR agency of record, Love Advertising's PR team led the PR efforts for the multi-agencies to generate awareness for the critical need to support the evacuees through either the Fund or donated supplies. Love Advertising's PR team developed a strategic approach directed by a calendar of targeted stories and press releases, a partnership with Houston Mayor Turner and testimonials of recently resettled Afghan refugees who wanted to share their story. Overall, the campaign and efforts garnered $164,315 in publicity value and secured 26 placements, reaching 39,474,500. The campaign also caught the attention of two national stations – FOX News Channel and CNN – propelling HARF into the national spotlight.
